ATICO FAKHRELDIN GROUP

LOCAL ORIGINS, STELLAR AMBITIONS

Since its inception, which came with the acquisition and redevelopment of what is now a world-class boutique hotel; ATICO Fakhreldin Group has expanded its reach and core business to encompass several renowned restaurants which offer international cuisines, a catering service and an events management company.

The ATICO Fakhreldin Group was founded on the Fakhreldin family's passion and dedication to providing fantastic food and service with distinction. As a group, we bring a new twist to the practice of fine dining and add new pulse to the traditional. From the very beginning, and with the opening of our first outlet, our focus has been on innovation, quality, excellence and customer service; providing clients of all ages and tastes a diverse selection of venues with an impeccable food experience.

We pride ourselves on being trendsetters in the Jordanian hospitality market. As leaders in the market, we adhere to our commitment to consistently providing only the best and freshest ingredients with immaculate service.

We continuously reset the standards for our workforce to reinforce the level of quality and excellence that is our utmost aim to achieve. We believe that investing in them is a guaranteed recipe for success. We promote diversity and inclusion, and cultivate a solid foundation that thrives on integrity, knowledge, skill and value; inspiring and empowering our team to do their very best, as they have become are our finest ingredient.

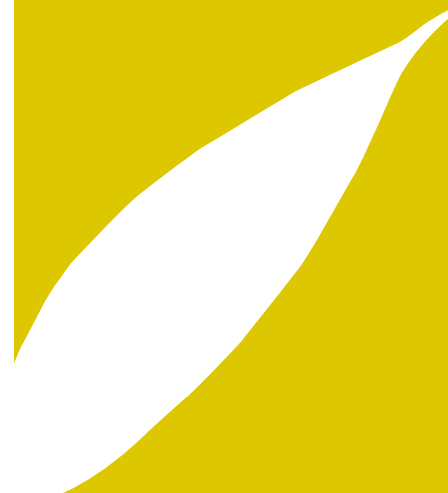

As a group, we will continue to create opportunities, innovations and developments, all within a framework of distinction and high quality; as our ultimate goal, this is what defines us. ATICO Fakhreldin Group now owns outlets in Jordan, Palestine, Cairo, Dubai and Spain with future expansion plans all over the world.
